Pope John Candy Shop

Welcome to the 2008-2009 edition of the Pope John Yearbook. This year's theme is the candy shop, and you will find that it is filled with all your sweet, and maybe sour memories. Enjoy!

Academics (HARD CANDY)

Clubs (FINE CHOCOLATE)

Sports (SUGAR CANDY)

Student Life (CANDY BARS)

Year in Review

Barack Obama becomes the first African American President. He is sworn in on January 20, 2009.

CLASS
2009

Pope John XXIII High School sets a school record of having three different teachers in three months for Biology.

The Dark Knight becomes the summer's big blockbuster, despite Heath Ledger's death shortly after film wraps.

The stock market takes a plummet into numbers that haven't been seen in years. Some predict a new depression.

Twilight smashes the box office making 70 million dollars in its opening weekend. Rob Pattison, the movies' star, does an autograph signing at the Square One Mall.

Year in Review

Tom Brady will not be the starting quarterback this year, after injuring his knee early in the season. Instead, Tom will undergo season ending surgery while he watches backup, Matt Cassel, lead the team.

Class of 2009

Once again, the Celtics faced the Lakers in the NBA Championship. Except this is 20 years later. Garnett, Allen, and Pierce led the Celtics to a world champion title in 2008.

The Summer 2008 Olympics took place in Beijing, China in August. The opening ceremony was deemed as one of the best. United States Olympic swimmer Michael Phelps (below) set a new Olympic record for the most gold medals won at a single Olympics.

Just as the stock market takes a dive, so do gas prices. At the beginning of the year, prices were hovering over four dollars. Now prices are falling just to half that.

The Pope John Yearbook is a club that does not necessarily meet weekly or even monthly. The students work hard from June of the previous year all the way through March to have a product for the graduating seniors to remember their time at Pope John.

Senior Class officers Rich Grogan, Auria Andrade, Kristina Cardillo and Christine Ungaro.

Junior Class officers Cassy Hernandez, Kim Cardillo, Megan Carreiro and Georgina Nicolo.

Student body officers Nick Mercuro, Joe DiFilippo, Martha Alvarado, Lucy Accime and Tanya Jules.

Freshman class officers Shannon Balser, Samantha McConaghy, Christopher Falcao, Luana Fonseca and Shara Vu

National Honor Society

Pope John's National Honor Society is not just a club at the school, but a privilege for those who have demonstrated achievement in academics and community life. The faculty at Pope John nominates prospective students to be inducted in the April ceremony. Pictured at left NHS members from the Class of 2009, who will be wearing gold stoles at graduation.

DRAMA

Doing Jesus' Work!

STATIC stands for Students Taking Action to Initiate Change, and it's a club at Pope John that gets students involved in the community, trying to make a difference in the world. This year STATIC made a trip to Washington, D.C., to participate in the March for Life, which takes a stand against abortion. STATIC also made cookies for the two blood drives that were held this year in the school gym.

Campus Ministry

Choir

This year a permanent choir was created at Pope John. The Singing Tigers, under the direction of Miss Megan Bergeron, performed at all the liturgies and sang at Barnes & Noble to help raise money for the school's spring trip to Europe.

A message from the school president, Mrs. Kathleen F. Donovan

Dear Seniors:

It must seem impossible that you are graduating from high school. As you remember all of the days spent at Pope John XXIII High School -- good times and impossible times, homework and tests, awards and detentions, pep rallies and liturgies, sports and clubs -- please remember the dedicated faculty who've spent their time preparing you to reach Graduation Day and beyond. Your parents are extremely proud of your accomplishments. They bathe in the reflected glory of your diplomas and awards. They too have earned them.

Please remember that all of us at Pope John have treasured each and every one of you. We shall remember when you spoke at liturgies, sang at Barnes & Noble, won league championships, and played your hearts out during tournaments. Your drama productions allowed talents to show both as a school and as individual participants. All of your future accomplishments will reflect on our high school, so continue to excel, to make your future bright with success, and to be joyful as you travel along the road of your life.

As you enter the world of college, work, or service, please remember that you are always welcome to return to Pope John to reminisce, to share accomplishments, to visit friends and to be part of the Alumni Association. The friends and acquaintances with whom you've shared four years will enjoy remembering as well. Your teachers hope to hear what you're doing and how far you've traveled. We hope that you will always remain a part of Pope John XXIII High School.

Enjoy graduation because you have earned it. It is your time to be excited and proud of your own high school tenure. Congratulations!

Very truly yours,

Kathleen F. Donovan
President

Library Media Center

Have to do a last minute lab?
Catch up on some reading? Or just need a quiet place to relax?
The library is the place to go at Pope John where teachers and students have constant access to computers and a wide selection of printed resources.

Virtual High School

For students who want to take a class not offered at Pope John, we offer Virtual High School. Classes are taught by teachers around the country via the Internet. This is just one way that Pope John takes advantage of emerging technologies.

ART

Students like Gina Steinberg and Sean Nalen show their artistic side in Mr. Burke's senior art class

Advanced Placement

NO PASSING
ZONE

This is year Pope John offered five Advance Placement classes in English, Spanish, biology, United States history, and calculus. The newest edition was the AP Spanish taught by Senor Balen.
